Computer Systems & Email - Saturday 09/04/2011

UPDATE: The work referred to below has now been completed and our email is fully operational.

We would like to advise Members and correspondents that on Saturday 9 April we will be conducting maintenance work on our computer systems. This work will affect email and we will not be able to respond to messages until after 18:00 GMT. If urgent matters arise please telephone either your normal contact using the mobile numbers on this website or the duty officer on (+44)(0)7795 116602.

The maintenance work will also affect WestNet but the website will be available as normal.
