

News 20 Jan, 2022

Nordic Marine Insurance announce appointment of Jan Limnell

Mark Mathews
Deputy Head of Underwriting (London) & Head of Product Development

West partner Nordic Marine Insurance announces that Jan Limnell is joining as Deputy Managing Director and Underwriting Director.

We are delighted to share that our Delay Insurance partner, Nordic Marine Insurance, are expanding their management team.

Jan Limnell will join Nordic in May, bringing with him a wealth of experience in both shipping and marine insurance and has been with the Finnish insurance company Alandia for almost 30 years. He is highly respected and a recognised expert in the industry.

Jan has also been involved in international cooperation within marine insurance for many years and has been chairman for Cefor, vice chairman of IUMIs Hull committee and a member of the Insurance Sweden's Maritime Committee.

Nordic Marine Insurance MD, Dan Lennhammer shared that: "Jan, with his experience and connections in the market will be a very valuable member of the team."

Nordic has a market-leading reputation among shipowners and charterers for their reliability and quality of its offering and Jan's appointment will build on this strong foundation, and will add even more experience to Nordic's dedicated team. We would like to wish you every success for the future, Jan!

Read more about Nordic and their Delay Insurance product

Nordic Marine Insurance Website →