Member Training Week - only a few spaces remaining

Monday 17 - Friday 21 September 2018, London Offices

There are only a few places remaining for our inaugural Member Training Week!

Intended to be for our Members and aimed at more junior staff, or those who wish to learn more about P&I insurance, the week will comprise a mixture of lectures and workshops covering all aspects of P&I and the Club's operations together with presentations from external speakers and various visits and evening activities.

More details can be found here WOE Member Training Week.

If you are interested in attending please contact Kay Bellinger at rsvp@westpandi.com.
