No.20 2022/2023 - Excess War Risks P&I Cover - 2023/24

Simon Parrott
Underwriting Director

February 2023

We refer to our News publication dated 16th January summarising the Group Reinsurance rates and the renewal of the Excess War P&I cover for 2023/24.

We advised that due to the ongoing conflict between Russia and Ukraine, the International Group's Excess War P&I reinsurers have included a territorial restriction in the cover available, which is consistent with that being applied by other insurers of primary war P&I cover for vessels trading in these waters.

We can now confirm that for vessels transiting and/or calling within all Russian waters including their coastal waters up to 12 nautical miles offshore, and certain European waters as defined below, cover is sub-limited to USD80m any one event, each vessel.

All entries will be endorsed with the following clause for the 2023/24 policy year.
