Novel Coronavirus: Measures being taken by Korean Authorities at Korean ports in respect to vessels arriving from/via China

In regards to the global Novel Coronavirus outbreak, kindly note that the Korean government is taking a number of measures to counter the spread of the virus. For vessels arriving at Korean ports from or via China, the National Quarantine Station and related authorities have set up an enhanced screening measures for the crew onboard. National Quarantine Station officers are boarding those vessels to check the body temperatures of each crew along with handing out questionnaires to be filled out personally by all crew members.

We will keep monitoring the situation and will advise updates, should there be a change in the situation/measures. Please circulate the information as you see fit.

We wish everyone at WOE safety/health and hope that the situation is resolved soon.
