

USA - Executive Order On Immigration Suspended

13th February 2017

Following legal challenges to the recent Executive Order issued by President Trump prohibiting entry into the US of citizens from certain countries (please see our News Item of 31 January 2017 for details), the Executive Order has been temporarily suspended. As this Client Alert from our US attorneys Freehill, Hogan & Mahar makes clear, the situation is now in a considerable state of flux as further court actions are thought likely.

For the moment the Executive Order is suspended and not being enforced, but Members will be kept advised of further developments.
