

West of England Insurance Services (North America) Inc.

2nd November 2017

The Club is pleased to announce the opening of an office in North America in the near future. Located in New York and run by Paul Barnes who has recently joined the Club, the office will work in conjunction with the existing claims, underwriting and loss prevention teams in London to service our North American Members as well as providing opportunities to develop new relationships with brokers and shipowners in what continues to be a very important market for the West of England.

Full contact details for the office will be published in due course, but Paul Barnes' contact details will be available on the Club's website shortly.
